

Lawyer.com is First Major Legal Services Company to Accept Bitcoin Payments

Lawyer.com now offering 10% off all services paid with Bitcoin. Bitcoin transaction savings passed on to customers.

Basking Ridge, NJ (PRWEB) August 04, 2015 -- Lawyer.com members now have a new way to pay. The online lawyer-match directory now accepts Bitcoin, allowing for faster, cheaper transactions. The new service is now offered with a 10% savings to Lawyer.com members and potential clients.

As an industry leader, Lawyer.com hopes to transform the way consumers purchase online services. Lawyer.com CEO, Gerry Gorman, says the decentralized currency offers lower processing fees for consumers and Lawyer.com. "Bitcoin transactions reduce our costs, improve transaction speed and provide full billing transparency. In return, we can offer our services at significant savings."

Lawyer.com members using the Bitcoin payment option can now enjoy 10% savings on all services. The entry Premium Membership fee of $99 per month is now $89 per month for Bitcoin users.

With Bitcoin rates hovering close to $300, the digital currency is gaining international popularity. "Bitcoins will account for $20 billion in payments in 2015 and the number of user wallets has doubled to 10 million worldwide in the last year," says Gorman.

Lawyer.com Premium Members can easily sign up for a free and secure Bitcoin Wallet at Coinbase.com or Bitpay.com. "We are always looking for ways to deliver more value to our Members and Bitcoins are an exciting and fun way to do so," says Gorman.
